NEVADA CITY NUGGET GRASS VALLEY

A TWICE-A-WEEK NEWSPAPER MONDAY AND THURSDAY

BROAD STREET

By Harley M. Leete, Jr.

Did you know there was a San Francisco Street in North San Juan? Neither did we, until a few days ago. Now if there's only a North San Juan Street in San Francisco the picture will be complete.

The other day we saw an interesting article by a student of political history who proclaimed that the biggest defect in the American political structure was the method of selecting presidents. He believed that the mammoth political conventions represented politicians, not the people as a whole. Reviewing our fragmentary knowledge of American history, it does seem to be true that the outstanding leaders among our presidents have been notable exceptions to a dull rule.

All of a sudden our little town is glorified by a strictly big city soigne (swan-yay to you) furniture window display, tres modern with bamboo blinds, polished blonde furniture, and a bland and pleasing color scheme. We're not telling where it is, but the name of the store does not begin with Zeta.

This writer has been in just about all local furniture emporiums recently and has come to the conclusion that twin cities residents can save a lot of gas and trouble when shopping for furniture, by shopping at home. The various stores in Nevada City and Grass Valley have as complete a stock as one is likely to find down below.

Life for the small business man these days is somewhat like Harry Truman's days in office—just one crisis after another. The small business man is a great complainer, but somehow he always survives the crisis. Taxes are too high, wages are too high, materials are too high—the whole situation is worse than impossible—yet, nonetheless, the little business man seems to survive from year to year, contributing his energies to his community, living well and meeting his bills promptly. The small merchant is a pretty hardy character and, in our opinion, extremely representative of the general timbre of the nation.

EMPLOYMENT NOW UNDER STATE CONTROL

GRASS VALLEY: A more localized employment service, with improved facilities or both employers and employees in Grass Valley was forecast today by A. L. Piedmonte, local manager of the California State Employment Service, who said that beginning tomorrow the service will again be administered by the California Department of Employment. Originally a state function the employment services of all states were taken over by the federal government as a war time function on January 1, 1942, and operated as the United States Employment Service. Effective tomorrow management of the service is being returned to the states, to be operated in cooperation with the United States Department of Labor.

"The Grass Valley office of the California State Employment Service will continue at its present location in the department of employment building at 111 South Auburn Street," the manager said. "The close relationship between the job placement and benefit payment functions of the department of employment can best be maintained by centralizing them as a single unit insofar as the general public is concerned. Integration of these two phases of the state's unemployment insurance system is the aim of the California Employment Stabilization Commission which administers the department of employment. Edward E. Steele will ontinue to serve the Grass Valley ofice as unemployment insurance manager."

HILARIOUS MOCK WEDDING SLATED IN CAMPTONVILLE

A hilariously comic "twisted wedding" will high light the benefit program by the Camptonville Women's Society of Christian Service November 16. The program will open with musical numbers by the Camptonville mixed quartette and many costumed numbers of old favorite songs by the large childrens choir.

The program is scheduled for 8 p. m. November 16 at the Camptonville Masonic Hall and all are invited to attend. The proceeds will help complete the building of the Camptonville community church.

Mrs. Nelson Stone will play the part of the nervous groom and will marry blushing Clarence Hanson in an elaborate mock ceremony. The cast of the large bridal party is as follows:

Mrs. Nelson Stone groom; Clarence Hanson bride; Harold Vindhurst, Ed. Baker, W. C. Williams, bride's attendants; Mrs. Lester Brown, Henry LeBarr, ushers, Ed Baker, maid of honor; Jerry Platz, best man; Mary Jackson, flower girl; Sam Price, ring bearer; J. Rittenhouse, bride's mother; Mrs. Ed Baker, minister.

Mrs. J. Rittenhouse, soloist.

The Ladies Aid of Camptonville will sell products of their hand craft in the hall the night of the program which will make excellent Christmas gifts.

MINERS BEAT YELLOWJACKETS TOP LEAGUE

Before packed bleachers lining the James S. Hennessy Field Monday, in one of the most spectacular of the long series of Grass Valley and Nevada City varsity footgall contests, the Grass Valley Miners won from the Nevada City Yellowjackets 33 to 7 in the annual Armistice Day gridiron battle.

Adding greatly to the colorful spectacle were stunts of the Grass Valley drill team, the gaily dressed majorettes of both schools, and girls drum corps in their bright red jackets, which were preliminary to the game and occupied idle time between halves.

At the close of the first quarter, with one minute to play, Tom Hooper, Grass Valley right end took a pass from Ken LeCrosse, right half and got away to a touchdown. Conversion failed.

In the middle of the seond quarter, Al Ali, left half, passed to Hooper who scored. Dave Wong kicked for the extra point.

In the third quarter the Grass Valley Miners scored two more times. Pete Daley, full back, carried the ball through the line for 12 yards to a touchdown. It was converted by a well placed kick by Dave Wong, half back. L. Orzalli made the fourth touchdown with an end run on reverse. Conversion was by a buck through the line.

In the last quarter the fifth touchdown was made by H. Valeschini, left half back who caught Nevada's punt and with splendid interference ran 70 yards to a touchdown. Conversion ailed.

It was in the last five minutes of the game, that Nevada City scored against a team composed largely of Grass Valley reserves. Hubert Stroh, left half heaved a pass to Dave Tobiassen in the end zone which Stroh converted by a kick.

Grass Valley not only won the annual Armistice Day game, in Monday's contest but also won top place in the SierraFoothill League.

During the game firemen were called out to fight a roaring fire on Stewart Street a few blocks from the park. The flames destroyed a building containing two garages and a store room. The property belonging to Ernest George, suffered estimated damage of $500. A dwelling at the front of the lot was saved.

BLAKE ASKS GV CHAMBER FOR TRAFFIC HELP

"This immediate area is averaging a traffic accident a day. Between now and December 31, 1946, 1500 persons will be killed in automobile accidents in California. A proportion of this number may well be our neighbors."

Such were the opening statements of Captain Joseph Blake of the California Highway Patrol in a plea for co-operation before the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce at their noon luncheon at the Bret Harte Inn yesterday.

"The Highway Patrol is working around the clock to help correct the situation, but public education and co-operation must be manifested at once to stop the ever increasing traffic accident totals," said Captain Blake, who for 23 years has been a member of the State Highway Patrol.

It is the public that is paying both directly in family tragedy and loss of income and indirectly through taxation for charitable hospital cases and a mounting insurance rate. Since the end of the war the president of the United States has made public appeal to stop this carnage of the highways.

Public education in matters of auto accidents and prevention must begin in the home and be carried through as a function of the school system according to Blake. After giving an amazing list of facts and figures Blake asked that the Grass Valley Chamber grant Executive-Secretary Ray Kronemeyer to appoint a board of Nevada County citizens to form a working traffic safety committee. Blake asked that care be given in the selection of the committee so that ithey would be men and women of outstanding calibre who would actually set up a program and carry it through. Kronemeyer was appointed and the selection of the committee will soon be announced.

Dr. Daniel Hirsch called attention to the fact that Grass Valley led the state in the organization of a safety council but the need of continuous public education, officer and court co-operation was essential.

Other committees made their report at yesterday's meeting which included the arrangements for Christmas decoration and the annual Christmas party.

The perpetual question of store closing made its annual appearance and opinions were expressed as to the feasibility o a uniform opening and closing time. The hours of 9 till 5:30 met with considerable approval but action was tabled pending a more representative poll of merchants. Many thought it would be better to wait until January first before any change should be made.

Action on the local hospital situation will probably take place in the near future when interested parties will meet with hospital owners in an effort to work out a program wherein existing and potential hospital facilities will be used before new construction plans are thought of.

Dr. Daniel Hirsch received the commendation of the chamber and a round of applause from the members present for his excellent work with the Grass Valley football team during the past successful season.

President Wesley Donnenwirth conducted the meeting.

Cassettari Appointed To State Bar Committee

GRASS VALLEY: William J. Cassettari, city attorney, has been appointed on the Legislative Committee of the State Bar Association by the Board of Governors, according to an announcement of the secretary of that organization. Kenneth G. McGilvray of Sacramento is chairman of the committee and Thomas J. Ledwich of Oakland, a former Grass Valley man, is also a member.

GEORGE HANSEN HEADS CHAMBER FOR 1947 TERM

George Hansen, paint and wallpaper merchant, was nominated for president of the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce and Ray Spicklemier, manager of a bottle shop was nominated for vice president for the 1947 term, at the November meeting of the chamber. There was no opposition to the nomination and election will formally take place at the December meeting.

Twelve directors were nominated of which six will be elected at the same meeting. The six directors will be chosen from the following twelve nominees: Paul Bergemann, Mrs. Roy Deeter, H. S. Foreman, John Mlinarich, Rev. Joseph W. Moore, Frank Tilton, Harold Berliner, Ed R. Hewston, Gordon Tryon, Fred C. Garrison, M. Ives and Cecil Holmes.

Tuesday night's meeting was well attended and several discussions were brought to the floor for group suggestions.

The unrestricted running of dogs was objected to by some of the members who called attention to the ever increasing number of dogs interfering with traffic in the business district. It was pointed out however that the fault perhaps lay with the dog owners because practically all dogs are licensed by the police department. The solution to keeping dogs from the business district was to have owners keep them at home.

Fast auto and truck driving was another matter that chamber members thought should be corrected. No official action was taken by the chamber but one interested member stated he would call on the police department in order that they would be able to answer the criticism that was directed against them and to determine if the charge had any foundation.

The chamber took pride in paying off a $100 loan advanced by local business men for work accompilshed on the airport. The money had been derived from a series of public entertainments sponsored by the chamber.

The need for funds to complete the plans for the city park and recreation grounds was emphasized. It was decided that it was too late in the year to accomplish anything constructive but that the airport and the park should share the spring program of essential undertakings.

Ty Taylor was named chairman of the 1947 projects committee and will be assisted by Gordon Tryon and Cecil Holmes. It will be there responsibility to anticipate projects to present to the chamber members.

MYERS MOBLEY DIES SUDDENLY IN S. F. STORE

NEVADA CITY: Word was received here yesterday of the sudden death of Myers Mobley, 40, one of Nevada City's favorite sons who, until 6 years ago, was a resident here. He died Wednesday morning in one of his San Francisco stores.

His home was in San Mateo where he lived with his wife, Phyllis, and their two sons, and where he operated another drug store, in addition to two in San Francisco.

For many years he was a pharmacist for Dickerman Drug Store. Recently he had enjoyed outstanding success in drugstore operation in the bay area.

Mobley, one of the city's most popular citizens, took an intense interest in hunting and fishing during his long residence here. He was very active in politics, too, and a member of the Elks and Masons.

Besides his wife and two sons he is survived by a sister, Miss Elaine Mobley, Dean of Women at the University of Nevada and an aunt Mrs. John W. Darke of this city. Mobley was the son of the late Justice of the Peace Walter Mobley..

Funeral services will take place at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the Episcopal Church in Burlingame. Cremation will follow. Several of Mobley's Nevada City friends and relatives will attend the services

EMPLOYERS COUNCIL DECLARES SUPPORT OF VALLEY GRILL

After a Nevada County Employers Council committee conferred separately with officials of the Culinary Workers Union, Mrs. Lola Richmond, and employees of the Valley Grill, Downey Clinch, council president, stated that the employers had decided upon a policy of unequivocal support of Mrs. Richmond's stand.

"The evidence shows," said Clinch, speaking for the Council, "that Mrs. Richmond's labor policy is fair, liberal and honest. She and her employees are being subjected to unfair and unmerited persecution. The Nevada County Employers Council heartily urges all citizens to patronize the Valley Grill.'

According to the employers group, the crux of the matter is that Valley Grill employees, satisfied with wages and working conditions, refuse to join the union. Foiled in this direction, says the council, the union seeks to force Mrs. Richmond to sign a contract, thereupon compelling her employes to join the union or find employment elsewhere.

The investigation upon which the employers group based its policy was carried out Tuesday by a committee composed of Rev. Frank Buck, Lynne Kelly, and William Stinson and represented the council and other interested organizations. The committee submitted a series of questions to union officials, to Mrs. Richmond and to Valley Grill employees.

Inspection of the committee's report is open to the public, and may be seen on application to Tom Glisan, the Employer's Council secretary.

The Valley Grill labor dispute has resulted in the picketing of the well known Mill Street restaurant for seven weeks.

NON PAYING TRIO STAKED TO JAIL FARE

Three men eating prison rations in the county jail have 12 days in which to regret their refusal to pay an innkeeper in Truckee for a bountiful steak dinner.

The men are J. B. Staton, 20, Charles Slatter, 18, both formerly of Oklahoma and Roy C. Colve, 18, formerly of Texas.

Justice of the Peace R. N. Little of Truckee gave them a choice between paying $25 fine each or languishing in jail on two unpretentious meals per day. Surprise ending: They chose jail.

GRASS VALLEY: General Warren T. Hannum, director of the State Department of Natural Resources, is to be principal speaker this Sunday at dedicatory services at the Harry L. Englebright Dam on the Yuba Narrows near Smartville. Services begin at 2 p. m.

George W. Hallock, president of the California Hydraulic Mining Association which is sponsoring the ceremony, stated that among many invited guests are Governor Earl Warren, Senator Joseph Martin, of Massachusetts, Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan, Col. Reverend Frank Buck, rector of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church will pronounce the invocation. After Hallock introduces the distinguished guests. Engle will deliver a short talk and General Hannum will make the dedicatory address.

Special guests of the occasion will be Mrs. Grace Englebright, widow of the late Congressman Harry L. Englebright and son H. Jackson Englebright.

The dam was named after Congressman Englebright by congressional resolution.

ONLY 2 MEN ON GV COUNCIL NOW

GRASS VALLEY: The responsibility of running the affairs of Grass Valley now rests upon two men, Alison Simmons, mayor, and John R. Thomas, councilman. This development follows upon the resignation of Llyod Weeks who has departed from Grass Valley. The resignation was accepted at Tuesday night's council business meeting.

The council has as yet taken no action to fill the vacant place.

Other matters discussed by the two officials were a request by the highway patrol for more city participation in Station KAPI expense and the traffic problem at the intersection of Main and Auburn Streets. The highway patrol's request was denied and it was decided to put four stop signs at the intersection under examinationn.

REPUBLICANS MUST CARRY TREMENDOUS BURDEN

Now that the Republicans are at long last in power, it behooves them to get their collective nose to the grindstone and start getting results pronto. Whether or not they are going to be a success is difficult to judge from their history during Roosevelt's administration.

During that period they built themselves a remarkable record of destructive criticism that apparently went over to the constructive side in only one field, that of foreign affairs. Sarcasm, invective. diatribe, execration, denunciation and vituperation were all polished to a high degree during Republican minority opposition.

These qualities, however, will not aid the Republicans to bear the crushing burden of responsibilities in these exceedingly complicated and disturbing times.

Whether one turns to foreign affairs, probably in a more crucial tangle than at any time in the world's history, or to the tortured domestic scene with its strikes and shortages, the problems are bitter and pressing.

Republicans, trained in a school of destructive criticism, will find that a successful policy requires of them the highest degree of industry and broad understanding. We earnesly hope that they will find the great leadership without which they cannot succeed. H. M. L. Jr.

JUST WONDERIN'

I wonder at this eerie month
With autumn rains abundant,
And campaign speeches at their best,
Verbose, high pitched, redundant;
But soon she whispers in our ears,
"We're through with the election,
So turn your thoughts to taxes now
It's time for the collection."

November is most truly an unusual month, in that it brings such a curious collection of important days with which we are vitally concerned.

Californians look for copious rains in November and they are seldom disappointed. November skies are grey and the rain falls: then it is that the earth awakes and even before the advent of December, green grass begins to mantle hills and vales and we find in the softened tints of the landscapes, many harbingers of spring.

Election day brings its responsibilities and every voter should feel the necessity of making intelligent choices among the various candidates and vote for the man whom he deems best fitted for the tasks to which the electorate will assign him.

In November, taxes become due and some of us make lamentations, perhaps not stopping to realize the benefits which accrue to us through our system of taxation. It would be well if we counted the benefits for which we pay with tax money and begin to make it impossible for certain groups of misled men to snatch them from us at a moment's notice. I hope the newly elected will enact laws that will restore to us some of the rights of life, liberty and happiness which are constantly menaced by a small percentage of our population which seems indifferent to the dangers and discomforts which beset us at the present time.

Yes, voting and the payment of taxes are must items upon our November agenda and then comes Thanksgiving and we who live under a star strewn flag, find so many things to be thankful for that we forget the realities of campaigns and taxes and give ourselves unreservedly to the seasonal festivities.

America is still a land of promise, a land of freedom and of opportunity. It is a fortunate land in that it can share its blessings with those less fortunate, and bring to the homes of the sad and lonely much of the joy and comfort which we are provileged to know.

Let us speak no discouraging words to those who are striving to reduce the want and fear which afflict so many lands and many people. Let us hasten the day when the whole world may share in our Thanksgiving joy and know the blessings of life and liberty, as we have come to know them in America, the beautiful—America, our home.—Adeline Merriam Conner.

MAIN AT MILL

By BOB PAINE

We belong to the school of thought that the continued celebrating of Armistice Day is phony. With all due respect to Word War I boys we believe that to observe November 11 is like tearing up the mootball goal posts at half time. As any 10 year old school boy can tell you now Armistice Day did not mean the end of the war in 1918. Only the shooting stopped, to be resumed 21 years latter. To the boys from Europe VE day is the all important. And to the island hoppers of the Pacific VJ day should be the one. But even those days are not in themselves truly accurate to commemorate. We all remember the delay in Europe from the cease firing order, the premature reporter's end of the war flash and the official slowness to permit the news to be given simultaneously from the three world capitals of Washington, Moscow and London. History repeated in Japan after the bomb was dropped. We knew the Japs had thrown in the towel but the official announcement came days later. So why not have congress set a new day to keep everyone happy?

Last year at Armistice demobilization was not far enough advanced to permit a large gathering of WW II at the annual Legion banquet. But last Monday night with all the boys home we attended our first Armistice Day smoker.

Two years ago on Armistice Day victory seemed pretty close. Little did we suspect in middle November 1944 that the Battle of the Bulge was just around the corner and that the battle for Okinawa would be the bloodiest of modern warfare. As the W II men reminisced as to their whereabouts in 1918 the WW II traded notes also. Nostalgic like we asked the old lawyer's direct question: "'Where were you on the night of November 11, 1944?"

The first new veteran we queried was Elton "The Champ" Williams, who remembers well every campaign of Texas and Germany. "Do I remember two years ago tonight?. I sure do. I was assistant battalion surgeon in the 10th Armored. The battle for Metz was on and we were supporting the 90th Infantry Division. About midnight we crossed the Moselle at Pettit Hettange. And about morning—but that's another story—and where is Williams today-? Fighting off the ladies — telling them "No, that refrigerator is not for sale—it's only for display purposes—and in his spare time he helped to elect Dick Hoskins sheriff and Fred Howser Attorney General.

And there was Ed Fellerson who says that two years ago he was assigned to a nameless isle in the Pacific—but Monday you saw him back in all his glory as drum major leading his very excellent Grass Valley High School Band in the parade and at the game.

The old regulars will tell that in recent years the Legion Armistice Day have not had the pep they used to. National veterans conventions have shown that the WW I and WW II vets don't quite understand each other yet. But its our guess that the get togethers such as last Monday will increase in importance as WW II vets start creating their own traditions.

Wondering what army life is overseas these days we recently wrote a pal who stayed in. "Of course the excitement of war is gone, but life is not too unpleasant. Cigarettes bring about $30 a carton and a chocolate bar and lifebuoy is still good tradin' stuff. The big change is in the Red Cross gals, army nurses and Wacs. Remember when they were outnumbered by the GI's two thousand to one? Well, they are no longer queens. The army wife has arrived from the states—and competition is keen."

We got to thinking where we were two years ago ourselves so we fingered through our war diary and found the notation November 11, 1944—saxophones, kilts and monkey. And we remembered that we had been sent to Naples to buy a couple of saxophones for the band. That night we met a Scot friend that we had been on a couple of parties with before. We went to an off-limits wine cellar off Via Roma near the officer's Red Cross. We remember the Scot's Algerian monkey who pawed out crumplel paper liras from the kilt pocket and took them over to the squeeze box musician who played and sang Lili Marlene over and over again.

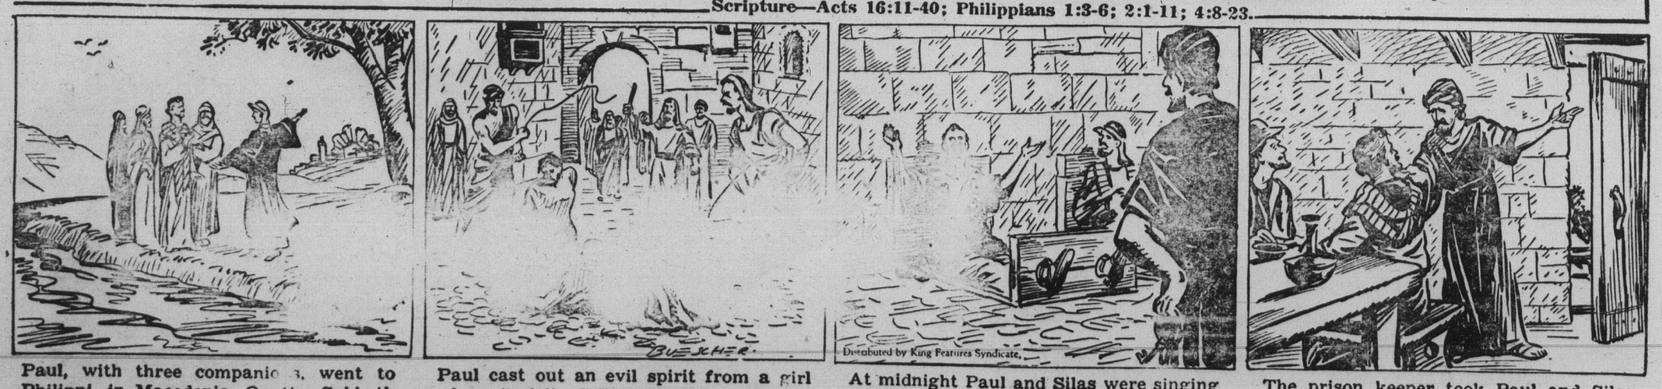
Scripture—Acts 16:11-40; Philippians 1:3-6; 2:1-11; 4:8-23.

By Alfred J. Buescher



Paul, with three companions, went to Philippi, in Macedonia. On the Sabbath they went to the river where prayers were said when there was no synagogue, and there they met a woman named Lydia, who was baptized and then begged the disciples to stay at her house.

Paul cast out an evil spirit from a girl whose "spirit of divination" brought her masters much profit. The masters took Paul and Silas with them into the marketplace before the rulers, and there they were stripped and beaten, then put in the stocks in prison.

At midnight Paul and Silas were singing praises to God, when there was an earthquake and the fetters of all prisoners were broken. The keeper, sure his prisoners had escaped, was about to kill himself when Paul called to him not to do so as they were all there.

The prison keeper took Paul and Silas to his house, fed them and told them they were free, but Paul insisted that as the magistrates had imprisoned Roman citizens, they should come and set them free, which they did.

NEWS FROM THE RIDGE

By ALICE HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Bartsch celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary on October 30th. Bartsch came to this country from Switzerland as a young man and married Anna Long at the Long family home near Camptonville Slate Range district. Later making their home on the Moonshine Creek ranch where their large family of children were raised. For some years past they have lived in North San Juan at their place on San Francisco Street. An elder son, Francis lives on the home ranch and son Tommy and family on the Kelly Ranch close by. While daughter Loretta, now Mrs. Ralph E. Jones lives on Flame Street, of this village and their youngest son Raymond, makes his home with his parents. Few are privileged to live so many years together and in addition have the great pleasure of so many children and grandchildren living close at hand.

A Halloween party was given at the North San Juan school house that will set a pattern for what should be an annual get together of old and young with smiles and laughter the order of day.

The rooms were gayly decorated with madrone, honeysuckle whose bright berries shone among the colorful autumn leaves of oak and maple. Expressive of the day were myriads of color drawings and cutouts of witches and black cats, owls and jack-o-lanterns prepared by the pupils. Costumes and masks, fanciful and grotesque were worn by the children.

A well planned and executed program of recitations and song concluded by the string dance Skip to a Lou entered into with enthusiasm by all the pupils entertained the parents and friends till time for refreshments when pumpkin pie, coffee and chocolate were served to all. Fifty children and 30 adults were in attendance and all are grateful to our teachers Mrs. Cumi Mahan and Mrs. Effie Herrald for their unselfish labors for the enjoyment of others.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Murdock celebrated their 3rd wedding anniversary on Halloween. They are living in the Wonell place on Cherokee Street.

Mrs. Stanley Price, daughter of L. W. Wood and her husband from Oakland were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wood for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fogarty and son Jimmy, of San Rafael spent the week end with Raymond's parents Mr. and Mrs. Kern Fogarty of the North San Juan post office. Also their daughter Mrs. Lucille Costa of Downieville was down for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sherwood of Sacramento and former residents of North San Juan were here a few days last week visiting her mother, Mrs. Josie Burkholder and her sister Mrs. Kern Fogarty.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Peterson of Sweetland were hosts to their friends and neighbors at a buck stew on November 2. They have made this an annual affair much looked forward to. NEVADA CITY HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

By HENRY MURPHY

The long awaited school letters arrived recently and were distributed at an assembly held last Friday. Even though the awards were ordered last year they failed to arrive in time due to such drastic manpower and materials shortages.

Large "N" letters in purple on a gold background, with awards attached signifying the sport in which the letter was earned. Majorettes also received letters which were in the form of a purple N with a gold baton in the middle.

In order to qualify for a letter, the student must have 10 points in three headings, namely, administrative, class officers, cultural, special work on the school paper and Quill and of course athletics. In athletics the student must appear in a certain number of games to get points for this division and be out for two different sports.

Miners Win 26-0 In B Game

The Bumblebees met one of their worst defeats of the season at the hands of the Grass Valley Miners B team 26-0. Grass Valley was well organized but were given stiff competition by the non-clinching Bees who just couldn't seem to make their plays work.

Majorettes Perform

At the Armistice day game last Monday the Nevada City High Majorettes and the Grass Valley band and drill team presented a spectacle which is almost as good as the game itself. The majorettes did a swell job and the drill team's precision made them an important part of Monday's program. The beauty and skill of both school's half time participation in the activities of the day brought forth many compliments.

Trio Thrill Audience

Mary Jane Heath and trio appeared in the high school auditorium last Friday and presented a well enjoyed group of vocal selections.

Miss Heath sang numerous duets with Miss Peggy Lawford and was accompanied by Miss Jean Taylor at the piano.

Among the old favorites was "Tea for Two," "Donkey Serenade" and selections from Carosel. However the delight of the evening was when Miss Lawford and Miss Heath in full costume, acted out favorite scenes from "Hanzel and Gretchel" much to the delight and great amusement of the audience.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Handle a Fortune

Some months ago I reported in the Clarion how Mel Bate's uncle died up north, and left him with a tidy fortune.

Naturally, our town was curious to see how Mel would spend it: Traveling around the world . . . getting a new house or car . . . wearing fancy clothes . . . or dining on cold pheasant and champagne . . . ?

We can now report, Mel hasn't changed a bit! Drop in on him any night, and you'll find him in his shirt sleeves by the fire, chatting with the Missus, sharing a mellow glass of beer with friends.

From where I sit, Mel has learned the art of handling money—as well as handling people. You don't let cash-in-the-bank push you around any more than you let people push you around. If you like the simple, homey life; companionship and quiet ways; a glass of beer and friendly talk — that's worth a fortune, after all!

Measuring the needs of tomorrow with a $160,000,000 YARDSTICK

Men and machinery are at work in nearly every section of Northern and Central California on P. G. and E.'s long-range construction and improvement program.

The Company is spending $160,000,000 in a three-year expansion program, largest construction undertaking in its history. We served the excessive wartime load; we are meeting the great postwar industrial expansion; and now we are building to serve the even greater California of tomorrow.

Here is a true yardstick of business progress—$160,000,000 going to work in many communities—in your community. It will provide electric power to drive more machines, to produce more work, to permit more industrial and commercial expansion, and to serve a rapidly growing population with dependable power at lowest rates.

This vast program is more than a stockpile of work built up during war years. It is a long-planned, long-range program in a continuing policy of building ahead to measure the needs of tomorrow.

New power projects in the construction program will add more than half a million horsepower to your electric company's interconnected transmission system. Thus, P. G. and E. will give Northern and Central California a power pool of 3,109,636 horsepower by the end of 1948—one of the largest reservoirs of electric power in the world!

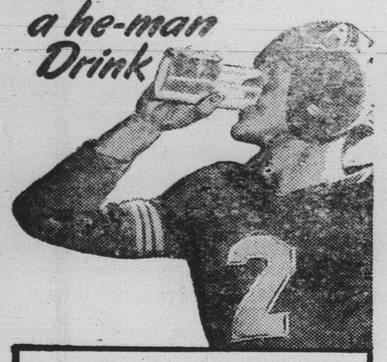
MILK a he-man Drink



Milk is the number one food requirement of athletes who have to work hard and play hard. For milk is a muscle-builder! It is a most valuable source of the vitamins, minerals and amino acids necessary in building strong, healthy bodies, supplying reserve energy, and developing keen vision and steady nerves. On the athlete's table or the family table, MILK, even at twice the price, would still be your best "food buy"!

LADY KILLER IN EASY TO WED COMING SUNDAY

"Easy to Wed" new MGM Technicolor musical which opens Sunday for three nights at the Broadway Theatre is easy to look at, easy to listen to and above all, easy to laugh at.

With stars added cast topped by Van Johnson, Esther Williams, Lucille Ball and Krenan Wynn the new picture offers a world of entertainment in a howl provoking tale of a lady killer who sells his charm to the highest bidder only to find himself facing charges of bigamy.

Against this is laid a colorful background of metropolitan action contrasted with scenes at a Mexican resort with Van Johnson and Miss Williams doing their first singing and dancing on the screen and the lovely Esther again revealing her skill as a swimming and diving champ. Hhe musical sequences—Miss Ball does a song and dance number too—are arrestingly original and beautiful.

Van Johnson will add to his huge host of fans in his new role as the debonair man about town who agrees to marry Lucille Ball in order that he can subsequently make love to Miss Williams and get her to drop a newspaper libel suit caused by her having been termed a "husband stealer". The vivacious Lucille is seen to advantage as the dancer who is tossed willy-nilly between Van Johnson and Krenan Wynn in utter disregard of her own wishes and Wynn is ideal as the bewildered reporter whose unfortunate wisecrack has been the source of the libel spit.

Mountain Towns Use Gas Rather Than Wood For Fuel

Liquefied petroleum gas is the proper name for compressed petroleum gas. This product has been developed and put on the market in recent years. It is sold by the major oil companies under trade names but is commonly called propane and butane. Ten years ago the total output in California was reported at 2,000,000 gallons. Last week 50,000 gallons was delivered to various buyers in this area. This is a remarkable economic change in a community which has burned wood for many generations.

Thou art no more a servant but a son; and if a son then an heir of God through Christ, Galations 4:7. This is the golden text for the Christian Science lesson sermon for Sunday, November 17, on the subject Mortals and Immortals.

The following citations are taken from the sermon:

Isaiah 63:16 Doubtless thou art our father though Abraham be ignorant of us and Israel acknowledged us not; thou O Lord art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

Science and Health with key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: In science man is the offspring of spirit. The beautiful, good and pure constitute his ancestry. His origin is not like that of mortals in brute instincts nor does he pass through material conditions prior to reaching intelligence .Spirit is his primitve and ultimate source of being: God is his father and life is the law of his being. p. 63.

Scout Leaders Discuss Calendar Sale

A special meeting of Girl Scout councilers and leaders was held at the scout headquarters last Thursday evening. The main purpose of the meeting was to arrange for the sale of calendars. This is a nation wide Girl Scout means of raising funds. The calendars, selling for 25c are reported to be very attractive. They have also been suggested for Christmas remembrances.

The calendar sale is to pay operating costs for each troop through the year. A house to house canvass is planned and will start Saturday, November 16.

Further plans for the Scotts Flat camp were discussed.

It was pointed out that a line of distinction should be made clear in the matter of funds raised at a July Business and Professional Women's carnival held for scouting. The calendar sale is put on for current costs whereas the carnival funds were earmarked for future use in erecting a camp at Scotts Flat.

So much activity was reported in scouting among the girls of the city the council voted to form another troop to take care of present applications.

Those attending the Thursday night meeting were Mesdames Norene Dow, Muriel Vance, Mae Crane, Alice Geist, Etta Richards, Warrene Paulson, Geraldine Mooers, Adele Sturtevant, Mary German and Elise DeMattie.

How 23,000 new jobs were born

To grow with the West . . . to build and maintain the finest possible telephone service for you . . . a good sized army of men and women is already at work, and more are pitching in every day. In the last five years, we have added more than 23,000 new employees—our total force is now more than 63,000.

It is our purpose to provide telephones for everyone who is waiting just as rapidly as we can and to build an ever-expanding, ever-improving service for the West. Our gross plant construction will aggregate $130,000,000 for this year and, as now visualized, it will exceed $200,000,000 for 1947. It's a big job, but you can be certain we're going ahead fast.

Today, telephone calls on the Pacific Coast have reached a record high of 17,400,000 a day, and until we can get and install all the equipment we need there will sometimes be delays in service. We want you to know we will do our utmost to keep them at a minimum and to hurry the day when service will be even better than ever before.

An ever-improving telephone service at the least cost consistent with good wages and working conditions for our employees and a reasonable return to the thousands of people who have invested in the business.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Nugget
Dear Editor:

It was very pleasant for me to note last Saturday that the people of Grass Valley have their eyes open to the labor racket that exists in their town. I am referring to the picket line in front of the Valley Grill. Two weeks previously I was there and customers were noticeably absent. But last Saturday the patronage was pleasantly normal.

Unions originally gave me a bad taste during the war, when we have had to stop and make parts for our machine guns that had been lost or broken, before going on a bombing mission. Just because some jokers were out on strike. On occasion we have flown missions with half a case of ammunition as the armament for an entire B-17 because strikers were holding out our equipment.

Being of a curious nature. I asked some of the waitresses about the picket line. It seems that the Valley Grill is not a union shop. The fact that the help are satisfied makes no difference. The union doesn't get its cut, through the help so the "Grill" is black balled.

I thought that Americans once went to war rather than pay tribute.

OIL LIMIT

Motorists are cautioned to keep the oil in the crankcase at least to the half full mark. Despite the general use of pressure lubrication systems modern cars take more cooling than their predecessors, with the result that a limited amount of oil will soon be overworked. It has been found that general oil consumption will increase as the quantity in the crankcase diminishes.

Funeral Services For Philip H. Paynter

GRASS VALLEY: Funeral arrangements are being made by Hooper and Weaver Mortuary for Philip H. Paynter, who died at four p. m. Tuesday at the Race Street home of his friend J. B. Stennett.

Paynter was stricken with a hemmorhage after he had arrived at the Stennet residence to talk over his summer fishing experiences with his old friend. Despite quick medical assistance, he succumbed in a few minutes.

Born in Grass Valley 59 years ago, Paynter was the son of Judge and Mrs. P. H. Paynter of this city.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Ethel Paynter and two sons, William and Philip Jr.
